Dublin, Friday, Jan. 28. 1853

Dear Mr Mary – In the last note I had from you were 4 new names for the advocate. The note has gone astray & I have worried myself looking for it in some of the very last places where it is sure to be. But in vain. I therefore send 4 additional papers to you for the months of February – and if you think it worthy to Mr Sutton I wish thank you for the interest name in a newspaper enclosed to myself – for I dont want him to see that I have enclosed your letter. Besides the name, we sent on I send the advocate to many others who are not subscribers – by direction of Mr Sutton who takes great interest in the advocate. The little paper seems to give final satisfaction. I only wish it could seem a party circulation – I mean one that is not party spirited for the education & instruction and may this truth be known and willingly undertaken for the sake of the cause. I have little doubt that if we can keep it going for a year or so, it will make a character for itself, though I say it who should not say it. It would give me the the greatest delight if I could be let "walking alone" for then I mean to Lawson has much his heart has been set upon the good of the cause I believe all manner of subscribers from every where that can be had to Mr Chapman & Lawson

I am told a first number of Lawson & Mr Chapman's Lunatic Asylum Gazette help the baby to stand steadily on his little legs. - I wish just suggest an idea that can strike me. You have doubtless heard from Mr Cotton about New Broad Street - Mr Chapman &c. Now I think if you could show your letter from Mr to Mr Jellicoe & from Jellicoe to write to Mr Chapman on the head of it - & the pleasure with which he hears of his zeal in the cause - his influence with the new editor, the important good he may do to the cause in that way & Jellicoe cannot decline for the promotion of the cause in every proper way without reference to any merely selfish considerations - I say by such a letter that good might be done. Make him write & do so & let it be sent directed to the Anti Office New Broad St London &

Mr Chapman. Chapman a Lancashire Unitarian - Young Lord Lindsay Lieut Blackett

Please send the Subscriber for this year to Mr Joshua Sharratt, Buckley, Mold, Flintshire England – beginning with the 1st No for this year.
I have got the money.

I think Rebecca Walton is already a subscriber to the Liberator – but she has changed her address since "137, Chester Road, Hulme Manchester" – instead of Deansgate in that same Metropolis of Cotton

Will you ask Miss Weston to take care for me information how many yds
